At 1:00 p.m., Indiana Secretary of State Todd Rokita called the meeting to order. Secretary Rokita introduced team members that were not present for the February 14, 2003 meeting. He reported about his recent trip to Washington, D.C. for the National Association of Secretaries of State meeting. During his trip, he visited with members of the Indiana congressional delegation to stress the importance of funding the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA). Our delegation members met his request with optimism and pledges of support.

Secretary Rokita then asked team members if they had any additions or corrections to the minutes from February 14, 2003. None were submitted. He also gave an overview of the packet they had received prior to the meeting.

Before breaking out into subgroups, Secretary Rokita asked all members to spend the first part of the subgroup meeting discussing where Indiana is today on these issues. He then suggested that 5 minutes be left at the end of their meetings for public comment.

Secretary Rokita adjourned the meeting at 1:15 p.m. so subgroups could convene.
